Liberty Creek Labradors - UPDATE!

Posted by diwelle - 2008/12/10 10:43

---

Welcome Liberty Creek Labradors to our Kennel Watch pages. Hopefully, we'll move them from Kennel Watch to the Whelp/puppy watch pages in the future. We all love watching babies!

:) UPDATE!
THERE ARE PUPPIES TO WATCH!

Betty will be letting the litter out tomorrow. So we will have playing puppies to watch!

B)
I'll add her to the puppy camera pages!

Hello, I want to introduce myself. I'm Betty and have been involved with Labrador Retrievers since 1998 when my son left for college. I trained running quarter horses professionally for 20 years. After retiring from the running horse world I founded Colonial Carriages, a horse-drawn carriage company located in Indianapolis, IN. I sold the company in 1986 and began driving a school bus for my childrens school corporation. I continue to drive a school bus while showing labrador retrievers in the ring and obedience and therapy.

The litter actually two litters you are watching were born 3 days apart. They are five weeks old. All chocolates, 16 total with 9 females and 7 boys.
